Our Vermont Congressmen are still separated by a yawning chasm. Gen.
Grout voted against the Cuban resolutions; Judge Power voted for them.
In this case we truly believe that Gen.
Grout represented the prevailing sentiment of Vermonters.—News.

Now that Cleveland does not want it, and Carlisle does not care for it, and Whitney will not take it, and Morrison cannot get it, and Olney and Russell are out of the question, why not have one more era of good feeling and let Chicago just endorse the St.
Louis nominee?—Record.

The bill introduced in the House by Representative Grout to make oleomargarine and all other imitation of dairy products subject to the laws of the state or territory into which they are transported has been favorably acted upon by the agricultural committee and reported to the House with the recommendation that it pass.

The Rhode Island Republicans led off the year's voting Wednesday by re-electing Gov. Lippitt by a plurality of more than 10,000. If the result is a forerunner of what is to follow the triumph of Republicanism and protection in the presidential campaign will be without precedent. The Republican success was so complete and emphatic that the Democrats attempt to make no explanation. Complete and revised returns show Lippitt's plurality to be 11,278.

The formal announcement by Baron Blanc, in the Italian Senate, of an alliance between Great Britain and Italy is a matter of extreme moment in European affairs. Such an alliance, which has previously been reported as existing, brings England into closer communion with the Triple Alliance, from which she has hitherto held aloof, and the result on the balance of power in Europe is manifest. Whether the compact was entered into solely to further British interests in Africa or to consummate some deeper schemes, future developments will have to show, but at any rate an alliance, between Great Britain and Italy, with a probable contingent understanding with the other parties to the Dreibund, will add strength to England's hand in her game with Russia.

The house of representatives is in line with the senate on the Cuban resolutions and Cleveland's chance has come. It is probably his last opportunity to display any adequate idea of the appreciation of public sentiment and the chance these resolutions afford is too good a one for an American president to lose. Of course there is some element of doubt raised by the question whether Cleveland is an American president or not, but there is no question as to the wishes of the American people whom he is reasonably supposed to represent. They believe that Cuba should be free and that the United States has the duty and the high privilege of assisting to secure that freedom. In the resolutions which congress has adopted this belief is clearly expressed and the president is advised to offer the friendly offices of this government to the work of securing Cuban independence. It is a great chance for Cleveland. Will he accept it?

There are so many "would-be" cough cures in the market, that people are often cautious about trying anything new. Before buying any more, hunt up some one who has used Adams' Botanic Cough Balsam and see what he says about it. 10c and 35c.

THE M. E. CONFERENCE.

The fifty-second annual session of the Vermont Methodist conference opened at Barre Tuesday morning at the new Methodist church, Bishop Fowler presiding. The first day was spent in examining candidates, which make a very promising class, nearly all being University graduates.

Wednesday morning Bishop Fowler, assisted by Rev. A. L. Cooper and the presiding elders, administered the holy sacrament, after which Mayor Gordon delivered an address of welcome, which was answered by Bishop Fowler. At the request of the Bishop, the roll of members was called and sixty-one answered to their names. Rev. W. R. Davenport, secretary of last year's conference, held at Waterbury, was re-elected to the same office, and Rev. W. C. Johnson and Rev. Andrew Gillies were elected to serve as assistants; Rev. H. J. Mc-Laughlin was elected statistical secretary; Rev. A. J. Hough, conference treasurer, with Rev. J. W. Naramore and Rev. E. A. Atwater, assistants.
It was then voted that all moneys paid into the Montpelier Seminary appear in the conference minutes, accredited to their several charges.

In the afternoon, Rev. Alanson L.
Cooper, D. D., of Newport, delivered the semi-centennial sermon, which took the place of the regular address.
In the evening, the anniversary of the Missionary Society of the Vermont Conference was celebrated. Chaplain McCabe being unable to be present on account of sickness, an address was given by Rev. Wm. Burt, D. D., superintendent of missions in Italy, including Sicily and work among the Italians in Switzerland. Dr. Burt, after a rapid summary of the political and religious conditions of Italy, gave some interesting statistics and statements concerning the present conditions and outlook for the future. The Methodists now have thirty-eight stations in different parts of Italy—seven elementary schools, an industrial school in Venice, a theological school, boys' college and two colleges for girls. The latest achievement is the erection of a magnificent central building at a cost of over $200,000, which is considered to be one of the finest buildings in Rome.

Thursday morning, after the devotional exercises, which were conducted by Rev. P. N. Granger of Irasburg, the business session of the day opened and the names of those who had been continued on trial were read, and their standing in different studies was given. Rev. Charles Parkhurst, editor of Zion's Herald, was then introduced.
Dr. Parkhurst represents the paper and the Wesleyan Association, which is responsible for its publication. He gave some interesting statistics regarding the paper. The building which the association owns is valued at $500,000, and the debt on it has been reduced to $140,000. Last year $15,000 was paid on the debt. The annual rentals now amount to $28,000.
The building and the paper are the property of the ministers of the six patronizing conferences in New England. The past year has been a very prosperous one with the Zion's Herald.
The candidates entering the conference in full connection were then called forward and Bishop Fowler delivered an eloquent and helpful address.
He pointed out to them the path for young ministers to follow, and said that the way was opened to them by God and that it was not safe to take a commission and then go out and do something else for a living. In closing his address he outlined the practical operations of preparing sermons.
In the afternoon a special session, under the presidency of Rev. H. A.
Spencer, was held. Rev. L. H. Elliott, agent of the Vermont Bible Society, was introduced and made a few remarks.

Miss Mary E. Lund, superintendent of the New England Deaconess Home, Boston, spoke also. Dr. Smith, principal of the Montpelier Seminary, spoke of the need of Sunday school teachers and class leaders making careful preparations for their work.
Rev. P. C. Abbey and Rev. A. A. Smith were introduced and gave short addresses. In the evening the anniversary of the Church Extension Society was held, Rev. J. Hamilton presiding. The address on "Church Extension" was delivered by Rev. Manley S. Hard, D. D., of Kingston, Pa.

Friday, after the devotional exercises, there was the usual business session. The delegates were elected to be sent to the general conference at Cleveland, Ohio. Rev. J. O. Sherburne and A. J. Hough were selected with Rev. L. O. Sherburne and W. S.
Smithers as alternates. The lay electoral conference elected, Lieut. Gov.

Mansur, and M. S. Perley with H. N.
Turner and Geo. H. Blake as alternates. In the evening there was a lecture by Bishop Charles H. Fowler on "Lincoln," ex-Gov. W. P. Dillingham presiding.

Save $50 to $100 worth of clothes a year by using less soap.

Arbor Day will be along again before long, and while we believe it is a very good thing to set out shade trees, and a better thing to set out fruit trees, we are not among those who are afraid that the country will be entirely denuded of its forest growth, or that there will be a timber famine in our day and generation. What many fancy is a wanton waste of timber in some sections is nothing more than an indispensable necessity in order to reclaim the land from its primeval condition and make it arable, and render it capable of producing something besides trees. It would not be a bad idea for every farmer to observe Arbor Day, or any other day for that matter, in setting out a few fruit trees.
There are hundreds of farms that have no orchards at all, and others that could be greatly improved by having more trees set out.—Exchange.

There's too much lye in too much soap; rots clothes; use less soap.

Again the knock-out blow gets in its work, as it is bound to do when delivered fairly and freely, and a pugilist-prize-fighter is dead in Haverhill. Of course there will be a regular autopsy, and the customary court proceedings. These have been of moment in other states. Thus it becomes more than ever Massachusetts' duty to act forcibly. The killing of one prize fighter by another ought to be dealt with as any other murder.
Then, in the second place and by all means, there ought to be no further question whatever about the passage of the bill prohibiting professional pugilism!—Record.

Soap contains lye—lye rots clothes—eats the fibre. Use less soap.

Metalline Shoes

ARE THE
BEST ON EARTH!

Why? Because the soles are made of the best oak tanned leather and are made absolutely water proof. Because the sole will outwear any three pair of ordinary soles and is always flexible, never cracks on the bottom never gets hard by being wet. The sole being flexible there is no strain on the upper, and the stitches never rip around the bottom.
During the past year we furnished the Salvation Army with their shoes. Listen to what

Mr. and Mrs. Ballington Booth have to say about them in "The War Cry" of Sept. 1895:

"Many firms have wanted us to go into the shoe trade, but we have hesitated because we were not sure of getting the right article. We know now that we have got just the thing we want. It is our shoes with the Metalline Waterproof Sole. We can walk all day on cold, damp ground, and moisture will not penetrate the soles of these shoes. We guarantee them better and less expensive than cork soles. Besides they do not become hard and stiff by being repeatedly wet and dried."

If the Salvation Army, wallowing around the slums of New York on pavement, do not put a shoe to a severe test, who does? Remember we manufacture our own goods and we know what goes into them. All styles in Ladies' and Gentlemen's. We also carry a full line of the best quality of Misses' and Children's Shoes and Rubbers. We take pleasure in showing our goods whether you wish to buy or not. Give us a call and be convinced.
